The old . . .

The Tale of the Tigers—a graphic record of the life of the students at Withrow as they study, play, and grow. But the Tale is not told in one year; it is an accumulation of time, and time changes the face of the Tiger. The new would not be as it is without the old to give it a foundation. So it is with the student. He must have an adequate background of knowledge before he is able to succeed to the utmost of his capability. Let us follow the Tigers.

And the new . . .

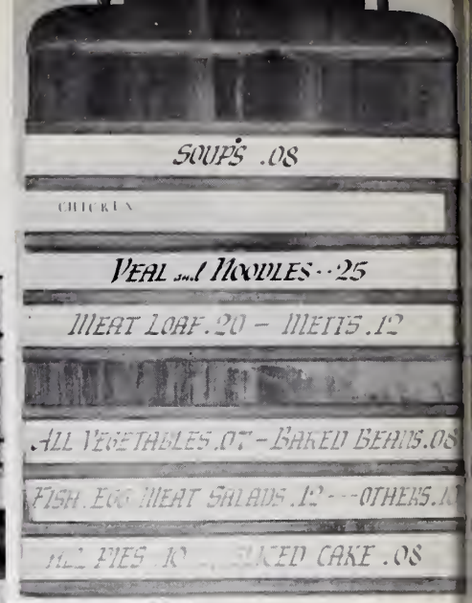
The halls of Tigertown are the scene of informal meetings and friendly chats before school. . . . When the bell rings, however, another day begins and the halls flood with busy students hurrying toward their destinations. Classrooms become the headquarters for stimulating discussions and daily examinations. As the pupils depart, recollection of the day's classes brings a pleasant sense of accomplishment.

CINCIN

Ravenous students, appetizing meal, pleasant surroundings . . .



Students and auditorium filled with music . . .

Serenity and concentration . . .

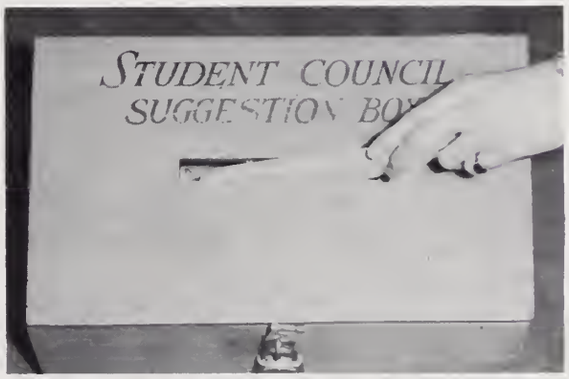
All high school students enjoy those few times when they have a break between classes. At Withrow the most popular of these occurrences was lunch time. The delectable odors and delicious food made this time memorable. The entertaining assemblies proved to be another source of pleasure which brightened many of our school days. Our story would not be complete without mentioning the library, where we so often studied and dreamed.

The routines that make for normalcy and security are dear to us. Student Council's suggestions and achievements, our teachers' attention to the daily details, the students', parents', and teachers' common interests blending in P.T.A., the janitorial staff's care of our building—all these things make life at Tigertown run smoothly and, therefore, enable us to concentrate on worthwhile things without being burdened by worries.

Student Council -- the student body's representative . . . .

Routine of checking in . . .

Courteous students, interested parents -- Open House.



Midas' just reward -- donkey ears . . .

Continuous work, completed assignments . . .

Extra-curricular clubs play a much more vital role in Withrow than providing students with an after school outlet for their various talents. Honor groups, student governing organizations, publications—these and many more student-run clubs help promote academic achievement. Life at Withrow is more stimulating because of these activities and through them students learn the value of research, self expression and attainment of high standards. These qualities are the background of student achievements.

Project -- to find the height of the Tower by triangulation . . .

A bench filled with muddy players who eye intently the action on the field, the cheerleaders leading the crowds urging the team on, an anxious coach, the various emotions of the players on the side-lines, the applause of the spectators, and the crack of the bat—all are signs that the Tiger gridmen, hardcourt men, and diamond men are pursuing their respective interests.

Cheers and chagrin -- part of the game . . .

"Now, boys, don't let them out—position you on those boards . . ."

Another hit -- perhaps another run . . .

Combined or separate, the band and choir provide Tigerland many pleasant hours of showmanship. Whether in concerts or fancy formations on the football field, the band is sure to provide appropriate music, while the choir cannot be found lacking in any instance. Perhaps the best evidence of their skill in music production is the annual Withrow Minstrels. Provided entirely by students and faculty members, this show has brought fame to the participating members and Withrow.

Chrysanthemums -- to a senior girl band member.

The Big "W" -- a typical half time scene.

Me and my shadow . . .

A typical dance -- informal garb and festive decorations . . .

Entertainment during an informal dance . . .

Congratulations to the happy king and queen of Cardiac Capers . . .

The "Tale of the Tigers" does not end at the sound of the three o'clock bell. Instead, some of our fondest memories will be those things which happened after school hours. While reminiscing we will recall the gay informal dances. Music, colorful decorations and the excitement during the coronation of the king and queen are favorites in our book of memories.

"Gentle slopes and lofty tower, radiant in the sun . . ."

As the gentle fall breezes blew through the leaves, which were already beginning to display their autumn hues, the thoughts and dreams of all Withrowites were centered about the coming school year. What would the year bring? Success or disappointment? Would their goals and ambitions be fulfilled? In this year of 1957 to 1958 we were confronted by many situations, and the story of these experiences we fondly named Tale of the Tigers.

Mr. Rayburn Cadwallader

Competent, Dignified, Reserved -- Our Poised Administrator, Mr. Cadwallader

Mr. Cadwallader, in his second year as the principal of Withrow, entered into the life of the students fully and helpfully. The officers of the student councils and the academic and social clubs found him to be a source of guidance and inspiration. Many a seemingly hopeless situation has lost its baffling character when worked over with his experienced hand. Many pupils know him only through assemblies or in the office; others became better acquainted in conferences concerning colleges or future occupational interests. Mr. Cadwallader has an ingenious way of letting teachers solve their problems by forming committees to clarify them. Speaking to the P.T.A.'s and helping to thrash out difficulties and planning things in teachers' meeting constitute two more of our principal's responsibilities.

Congenial, Helpful, Understanding -- Our Assistant Principals

Mr. McDevitt represents the epitome of friendliness and expert authority. He has become an outstanding part of Tigertown, not only because of his position, but also through his congenial personality. Besides assisting Mr. Cadwallader, Mr. McDevitt finds time to act as supervisor for the senior prom as well as advise Sigma Gamma, senior boys' honorary society. Never to be forgotten are the warm, personal bonds shared by Mr. McDevitt and every Withrow student.

Withrow Junior High flourishes under the firm and proficient hand of assistant principal, Mr. Buxton. New to Little Tigertown this year, he has shown deep interest and sincerity in assisting the "Effies" and "E-Flats" to adjust to a new atmosphere and to prepare themselves for senior high. Through sound counseling and sympathetic understanding he has been able to instruct, discipline, and admonish seventh, eighth, and ninth grades.

Junior And Senior High Counselors Help Make Decisions As They Tackle Students' Problems

By serving the diversified but basic needs of Withrow students, the counselors assist in moulding the successful futures of many pupils. Their friendly words of advice prove a big step toward the solution of our problems in regard to the selection of our high school curriculum. Miss Murphy and Mr. Kimble deal with the Junior High while the Senior High relies on Mrs. Konrad and Mr. Collins for guidance. Information concerning high school preparation for occupations and standard college requirements can be acquired through pamphlets and folders which are usually available in their offices. Opportunity truly knocks in these guidance periods when Withrowites are given a chance to plan and adjust to their future position in the world.

Courteous Secretaries Create An Air Of Work Well Done

The best of luck
Carol Teller

Who make out the summonses which strike a chill in the heart of every student? Who are willing to take time from their many and varied time-consuming tasks to help any little Tiger in need of aid? Who reminds "the boss" of luncheon appointments or conferences? Who are responsible for putting out bulletins, filing, sending transcripts to other schools, and typing? Who but the office secretaries! The smoohtly running wheels of Withrow would surely slow down without the assistance of Martha Allen in 204, Rose Spirtoff in the main office, Jean Leppert, Mr. Cadwallader's secretary, Penny Speth, Mr. Buxton's capable helper, and Carol Teller who aids Mr. McDevitt. To the masters of the mimeograph machines and the keepers of the cards—thanks.

Lots of luck
always to a real swell
kid. Jeanne Leppert

Mrs. Jean Leppert; Miss Carol Teller; and Miss Penny Speth—Office Secretaries

The English section of the faculty at Withrow is headed by Miss Hildebrandt, who supervises the distribution of our books so that each class has a planned schedule throughout the year. Special classes are offered for advanced students and college preparatory classes for those who intend to continue their quest for knowledge. English encompasses a wide and diversified field. Courses in speech and journalism draw aspirants in this area. The fund of learning and information is certain to be of benefit in more ways than one as we assume our positions in life.

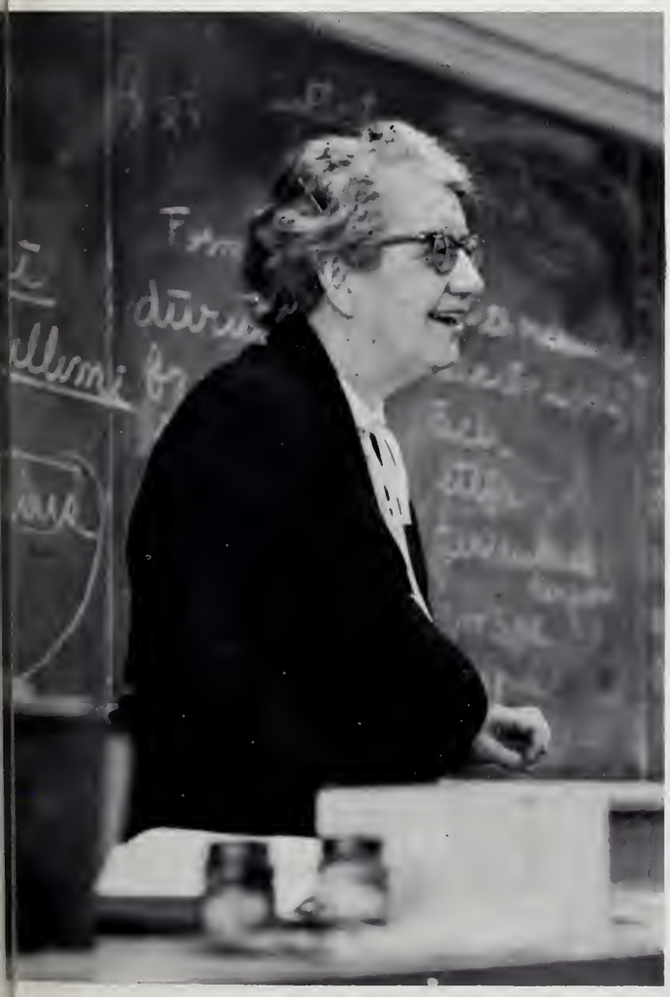
Instructors Revive Old-World Flavor Of Foreign Languages



German, French, Spanish, and Latin are the four foreign languages now being offered to Withrow's students by the fine language department. Extensive travel has presented many of these teachers with a background for lively class sessions. In a class period a skit may be enacted, a story read, a character portrayed, or an interesting phase of life or dialect discussed. Each language has a very active extra curricular club in which those students interested in furthering their knowledge of the color of the language and in having lots of fun participate.

MATH IV PUPILS GAIN A NEW PERSPECTIVE UNDER MISS PERIN.

Since the advent of the Sputniks, I. B. M.'s, and Explorer, the attention of the public and government has been spotlighted on the sciences—particularly math and physics. High school boys and girls have been urged to add math to their courses, for there is nothing to equal mathematics in preparing the mind to think logically. There is a new awareness to the possibilities of math. Far from being a dull subject, it opens the door to development. Whether teaching accelerated math or business arithmetic, our teachers have done a good job. Our country is crying for technicians and scientists in order to keep our scientific program at the breakneck speed that is required to maintain existence. Withrow is trying to answer the cry.

Science Opens The Door To New Fields Of Adventure

Biology, botany, physiology, chemistry, and physics make up the science department at Withrow. With a never ceasing quest for knowledge Withrowites study the living habits of insects, animals, and humans. Distant planets and the earth provide never ending sources of information which help us to understand facts concerning the planet which we inhabit. Physiology students study the functions of the body, and by the end of the school year proudly display much labored-over mannequins. Chemistry pupils find a world in lab and chemicals.

Social Studies, The Study Of The Past And The Present, Will Enable Students Better To Prepare And Plan For The Future

The history of mankind, a set pattern of habits and emotions, is an important part of a course so vital to the future of the world. Since so many decisions, both personal and national, are based on a knowledge of like decisions in the past, the many social studies teachers do their utmost to make this study interesting and lasting. These teachers strive not only to acquaint us with the past, but also to teach us to take active interest in the present, as many of the accomplishments and tragedies of today will no doubt be similar to like happenings in the past. A knowledge of the experiences of mankind from the beginning, to the birth of religion, down to the Twentieth Century is being shown to us for permanent imprint. Withrow is proud of its social studies program and the fine staff of well qualified teachers.

Sound Of Chaos - - Then Music As Classes Begin

Withrow has always been outstanding for its music department. The sincere cooperation of the students and faculty makes the production of the Minstrels, the Spring Concert, and the Christmas Concert events to be well remembered. Proudly marching down the field, the Tiger Band displays the orange and black, while the five choirs softly ring out the melodious tones of the Alma Mater. Besides the fun and enjoyment in music, there is a joy of creative expression. Indeed, we salute the fine achievements of Withrow's music department.

Art Teachers Present Professional Direction

Withrow has an art department of which we can be proud. This year, posters entered by students won first and second prizes in the city-wide American Education Week Contest. The department is in charge of posters and covers for the P. T. A. Art classes have always made the decorations for the traditional Christmas tree in the front hall. They also provide the backgrounds for the Christmas Program. Both the teachers and pupils of this group are eager to give aid to anyone who needs artistic help.

Home Economics Equips Girls For Successful Homemaking

Home economics, under the supervision of Mrs. Noonan, teaches girls management of the home, family relations, budgeting, child care, proper health, sewing, cooking, and the ability to get along with others. Senior homemaking is for girls who have had no previous training and are contemplating marriage, or plan to major in homemaking in college. These courses are important to the girls in preparing them as mothers of tomorrow.

Aspiring Future Tradesmen Cultivate Manual Skills

The industrial arts—woodworking, metalworking, printing, and electricity—play an active part in the course of studies at Withrow. These subjects are an excellent source of manual training for boys interested in such trades. They are truly practical classes and many useful and beautiful pieces of work came from the lathes, saws, and buffers during the year.

Commercial Subjects Acquaint Students With Complicated Operations Of The Business World

The commercial subjects teach accuracy in the student's work. He learns to listen to instructions the first time, so that they need not be repeated. Subjects such as typing and shorthand enable him to do more complete work and attain higher grades in high school and college. If a student is unable to attend college, he is prepared to get a job in the working world. Either way the student will be more confident and more mature to face the problems confronting him in the future and handle them properly.

Health Teaches Technique Of Proper Living; Gymnastics Help Maintain It

All sophomore and senior students at Withrow are required to take health. In the first phase, topics such as drivers' training, proper diet, and physical structure are discussed and studied. Later on, the student gains information concerning home nursing, family relations, and first-aid according to the Red Cross procedure. Drivers' training, an optional course under the supervision of Mr. Rigney, acquaints pupils with the proper technique and attitude in driving a car and better equips them for safe management. Physical education, a vital and essential part of the curriculum, succeeds in developing muscular co-ordination and good sportsmanship. Here at Tigertown, the ideals of a sound body are ardently expressed through the untiring endeavors of our instructors.

Special Classes Help Oral Pupils To Overcome Problems

Mrs. Miles, Mr. Yacks, and Mr. Bennington enjoy a career truly worthwhile—instructing the deaf students here at Withrow. By means of specially sound-treated rooms, tiled floors, and buff or yellow walls (for the deaf must hear through their eyes, and colors should be quiet and calm). Many of these students carry a normal schedule, with the oral teachers instructing them only in speech, lip-reading, and a little advanced tutoring. Through patient teaching, drilling, and experimenting day after day, these teachers attempt to bring the oral student further into the world of sound, before unknown, but often dreamed about.

UNDERSTANDING IS ESSENTIAL FOR THESE PUPILS.

The Library Offers A Place To Read, Study And Learn

Anyone interested in how many home runs Babe Ruth hit in 1929, Adam Smith's theory of capitalism, a story of a horse, how to prepare Sauerbraten, or Lincoln's Inaugural Address could have been found examining the books in our library. Withrow's librarians, Mrs. McDaniels and Mrs. Links, cope with the students' needs concerning reference work and location of special books. They give help to students who go to the library during study periods as well as those who visit it in the mornings and after school. In addition, they talk to entire classes on the use of our catalogue system and the different sections of the library.

Seniors Were Honored When Chosen For Popularity Poll

What do you think? Who will it be? These questions flew around Withrow for weeks while the results of the Popularity Poll were still unknown. Juniors on the Tower News staff proved that a secret could be kept as they conducted the preliminary balloting for the two top nominees and the final decisive vote. The most popular seniors proved to be Peg Callahan and Jim Reed, most likely to succeed, Susy Hayes and Barry Franz; most athletic, Bonnie Bley and Jim Reed; brainiest, Jane Saunders and Rich Dallow, best looking, Judy Holm and Tom Justin; while Kathy Oliver and Jim Warmouth were voted the cutest couple. These winners, along with the winners of the other categories, were announced at Cardiac Capers.

Popular, versatile Judy Bauer found herself in an extremely gay social whirl this year. Her activities included participation in several G. A. A. sports. The responsibilities of being a Tower News second page editor kept her very busy. She divided her remaining time between various meetings of Scribblers and attempting to understand the Latin spoken in Gens Togata.

Rich Christy was prominent in many fields. Whether it was voicing his opinion in a learned manner at student council or adeptly demonstrating an experiment for the benefit of Physics Club, Rich held the attention of all with whom he came in contact. Besides his academic achievement, Rich also showed his school spirit in track and cross-country.

An important fellow around Withrow was the president of Sigma Gamma, Rich Dallow. His active membership in Student Council and Tri Chi was attributed to his quiet sense of responsibility. Designing posters advertising various eventful activities, and also helping to plan the cover of the 1958 annual, made Rich well-known for his artistic ability.

Fond memories of G.A.A. remind us of its reliable president, popular Bonnie Bley. She participated in many of its sports and was always up-to-date in reporting its activities to interested Withrowites through Tower News. Her effervescent personality and outstanding ambition won her much success and personal satisfaction during her six years at Withrow.

Familiar to all Withrowites was the co-ordinating editor of the Annual—Barry Franz. This popular senior, known for his leadership, professional-like photography, and scientific thinking, will not soon be forgotten by his teachers and fellow students. If the record Barry made at Withrow is indicative of the future, his will be a life filled with success.

One would scarcely know that usually quiet Lynn Cahill is the same girl who performs her hilarious antics each year in the Withrow Minstrels. Titian-haired "Miss Cahill" could be seen attending various meetings on the Withrow campus including G.A.A., Alpha-Y-Teens, and Bowling Club. Lynn served her classmates well as Secretary of the Senior Class of 1958.

Peggy Callahan's heart-warming smile captured the hearts of all who came in contact with her. Especially enthusiastic at the first pep rally, the petite captain of our cheerleaders always succeeded in obtaining the crowd's undivided attention. A featured performer with the Minstrels since the seventh grade, Peg was well-known for her amusing novelty numbers.

A fleeting glimpse of a red head was many times all that could be seen of John Harris as he hurried from one activity to another. As a member of Student Council, Philologia, and varsity football team, an usher in the Minstrels, and an officer of Beta Hi-Y, John left a lasting impression as a hard and sincere worker in Tigerland.

Skill on the baseball field, well mixed with other activities formed the basic components of this Sig. Jack Kidd's good humor and frequent smile, plus his willingness to stick to a given task, made him an important member of Tigertown. He was just as well known for his academic achievement and his popularity as for his sizzling fastball that spelled so many strikes.

Pat Eckman's scholastic ability and sincere attitude were evident in every phase of her busy life at Tigertown. Her unusual dramatic skill won her the position of prexy of Thalian, while her proficiency as a determined Annual Art Editor was never questioned. Mannerly and reserved, Pat made a lasting impression upon her classmates and teachers at Withrow.

Tall, lanky, Jim Lashley, alias "Droopy Dragon" held the office of secretary of Sigma Gamma. He participated in Philologia and was a worthy addition to the senior class through his fine scholastic achievements. Being senior high band president and playing in a band called the Manhattans took up most of his spare time. Jim is planning to attend DePauw University.

Gail Handel's financing ability was responsible for her appointment to an important position—that of Dux Femina treasurer, and this talent made her an appreciated member of the Annual Business Staff. History Club claimed her interest, and Dolphin Club proudly boasted of her superior form swimming. Gail's shy, yet friendly smile, was symbolic of her nature.

Senior Prom Brings to a Close A Year of Great Accomplishments

The night of the Senior Prom—a night looked forward to for weeks! Literally hours are spent in preparation for this annual event. Cars must be washed and polished, corsages bought, shoes shined, and dresses purchased. When the evening finally arrives it brings excitement, wonder, and romance—a fitting climax to a marvelous year.

A busy senior with a pixie haircut could be seen at all hours of the day as she carried out the responsibilities of her offices and positions. Being president of Scribblers and corresponding secretary of Dux left Susy Hayes little time to spare. So well did she perform her duties that she was voted "Most Likely to Succeed" in the popularity poll.

Having the ability to accomplish the tasks attempted was one of the many qualities of Sigma Gamma's Bob Ponchot. He was president of the senior class and also prexy of senior choir. Bob was voted "most talented" in the survey taken for the popularity poll contest. His performance as a soloist in the '57 and '58 Minstrels drew enthusiastic applause.

Wielding the gavel of Student Council proved Bob Prather's ability as a leader and truly displayed his strong feeling of responsibility toward his school. His keen interest in the activities at Withrow was reflected in his participation in Philologia and on the varsity football team where his teammates will remember him as one of the star quarterbacks.

Kathy Oliver, a cute miss hailing from the old south, holds the title of president of Spanish Club. Her skill and ability in the literary field gained for her membership in Scribblers and the position of third page co-editor of Tower News. Her fellow students voted Kathy and her steady the most popular twosome of the year at Withrow.

Joe Tuttle proved himself outstanding to us Withrowites through fine grades and several extra curricular activities. He was present at sessions of Math Club and Philologia, and the Senior Band, in which he filled the position of recording secretary, demanded much of his spare time. Most likely you had lots of fun trying to see if you could distinguish Joe from his twin, Jon.

Nancy Paine's scholastic achievements and outside activities prompted the members of Dux to elect her as their president. She held the office of vice president of both History and Dolphin Clubs. Student Council and G.A.A. were other of her activities. Being a senior section head for the Annual Art Staff completed the eventful schedule of this popular senior miss.

Extreme intellectual ability was evidenced by Jane Saunders in all her activities at Withrow, which included being second page editor of Tower News and treasurer of G.A.A. Rated in the upper one percent of the nation in scholastic Achievement tests and heralded as "Brainiest" by her senior classmates, Jane has brought many honors to her Alma Mater.

If being a twin brings a personality like Jon Tuttle's to all, then everyone would be wise to find a double. Discussions in Philologia and playing drums in the band left little spare time in this popular senior's life. When looking back on his days at Withrow, Jon will no doubt chuckle at all the times his teachers and classmates mistakenly called him Joe.

During sixth bell and often into the later hours of the afternoon Tom Williams could be seen in room thirteen working for Tower News. Serving as editor-in-chief of our school newspaper represented a great deal of work for Tom. This popular member of Sigma Gamma presided at bi-weekly Beta Hi-Y meetings and also took part in Philologia.

Nancy Shick, vivacious and smart, was first page co-editor of Tower News. Rating high on her list of many activities were Dux Femina and Student Council. She also held an honored position as secretary of Senior Choir. As the historian of G.A.A., Nancy kept a varied and interesting up-to-date scrapbook on the events that had taken place during her office.

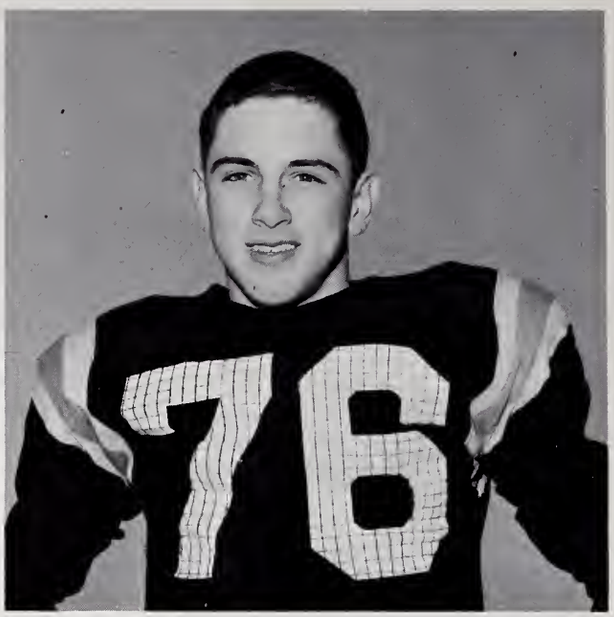
A pleasant miss of majorette fame was also active in G.A.A. and minstrels as a high stepping pony. Perhaps Judy Smith's major call to fame was her ability as head twirler to lead the marching band. Well did she deserve her call to Dux, for Judy was a top student and well-liked by her classmates. Many people will remember her shrill whistle at the half of a football game.



The familiar sight of a good-looking boy and his little green bug brings to mind John Yeager. His many activities included such things as president of Philologia, member of Student Council, varsity football player, and sergeant-at-arms of Sigma Gamma. He demonstrated his talents as an Indian dancer by appearing with the Wasakas in the Minstrels.

TWO SYMBOLS OF SENIORS—CAPS AND GOWNS, AND DREAMS.

Practical Details And Wistful Plans Epitomize Seniors.

After caps and gowns are measured and commencement night arrives, what lies ahead for seniors beyond the Withrow Bridge? For many of us it will mean college in the fall, for others it will mean the first full-time job and first paycheck. But, do we really know what crossing that bridge will bring? No, we can only plan, and hope our dreams and goals will be realized. For Withrow seniors, this bridge, which we have crossed so often, no longer seems just a bridge to school; but the bridge of life, over which there is no returning. We will have entered the world of adults and will find ourselves under different social conditions and pressures. We shall no longer have adults, such as teachers and parents, to advise and guide us in our every move, encouraging us when the going is hard, reprimanding us when we fail to meet standards. We shall have crossed the bridge.

Seniors And Juniors Receive Awards Before Student Body

Spring, budding forth clean and fresh, brings with it Awards Day and the reminder that this season will start a new episode in the lives of the seniors. When we round the track for the last time as Withrow students, we feel a sad gaiety as we remember the long anticipated Senior Prom, the school dances and parties, and our classmates, whom we will soon be leaving, each choosing a different fork in the road of life. While we sit among our friends in the stadium and receive the scholarships for outstanding scholastic work, we begin to realize the privileges of attending a high school such as Withrow. Suddenly we are brought back to reality as the calling of Sigma Gamma and Dux Femina members begins, and seniors once again bow out. It is certain that each graduating senior will always remember his mixed feelings on this Awards Day.

CONGRATULATIONS! HARD WORK YIELDS SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Culmination Of Four Years Of Development -- Graduation Day.

Graduation is a time of combined sadness and happiness. You see the tense, serious faces of the seniors as they sit in their chairs anxiously awaiting their diplomas, a sign that the future is now ahead with whatever it holds in store for them. They think about their past four years of high school, the fun and the work. Sometimes the thought passes through their minds that if they had it all to do over again they would study and try harder. It is indeed a beautiful sight to see the mass of white marching around the track with the new senior class president at the head of the long line, with the flag. The days are now over for the seniors to be looked up to by the high school underclassmen for they now start at the bottom of a long ladder to success in business and in life.

The Voice Of The Student Body Is Expressed Through The Activities And Projects Of Senior And Junior High Councils

TICKETS ANYONE? STUDENTS USE COUNCIL BOOTH.

At a typical senior high student council meeting Bob Prather, president, would open proceedings (Ken Elder vice-president ready to take over in case Bob should be absent); minutes would be read by Bond Elam and treasurer's report given by Joe Tuttle. During the school year senior high student council sponsors several open houses. Junior high student council has only been in existence for three years. The main project for this year was to raise money in order to purchase outfits for the junior high cheerleaders. Members are trying to organize academic clubs for the junior high. Later in the year Withrow and several other junior high schools met and discussed many mutual problems and solutions. Heading junior student council was president Tom Glueck. Vice president was eighth grader, Sue Habenicht, ninth grader, Carol Van Epps was secretary. Nancy Underhill filled the office of treasurer.

INFORMAL MEETINGS COMBINE BUSINESS AND FUN.

Scribblers -- The Honorary Literary Club For Girls

Scribblers, the junior-senior girls' honorary literary society, experienced a busy schedule this year. The members shared pen pals and alternated in writing entertaining letters to the residents of the Avon Convalescent Home. In April, Scribblers and Philologia again sponsored their annual literary contest, awarding prizes to deserving entries in each field. Shakespeare's birthday was celebrated by a formal dinner and a quaint program of individual recitations of the master's work. To climax an eventful year the members enjoyed a picnic. Such a group as Scribblers bands girls together sharing a love of literature and flair for writing.

Philologia Puts Emphasis On Informal Speaking

Philologia, Withrow's honorary literary club for boys, is made up of seniors chosen on the basis of a 500 word essay submitted to the club, concerning a controversial subject. At the close of the junior year, a prospective member must have at least a "B" average in English and social studies. The participants of this academic literary club try to acquire the art of giving extemporaneous speeches about any subject. In a typical meeting one would hear such speeches followed by constructive criticism. Philologia and Scribblers hold combined meetings occasionally during the year, but the annual June picnic is the highlight of the season for both.

Bookroom And Office Provide Work For Those Seeking An Opportunity Of Gaining Experience

Withrow girls who are seeking a business future gain valuable experience by working in the administrative offices. Pupils who have completed the courses of Shorthand I and Typing I are eligible to work in the junior high office, while advanced commercial students are permitted to work in the main office. Such tasks as changing time cards, operating the switchboard, or just running ordinary errands serve to acquaint the girls with the business world. Withrow's student store, the bookroom, is well-stocked with necessary supplies and commodities for every pupil's daily needs. John Grafton and Gene Ireland, the two reliable cashiers, combined work and pleasure in a friendly atmosphere.

Withrow's Lunchroom And Lost And Found -- Two Very Necessary Daily Functions In Our School.

Among the services performed for the school by the students themselves were the running of the lost and found department and the aiding of the dietitians in the lunchroom. Before and after school in 104, students aided others in locating lost articles that had been turned in by thoughtful people. Mr. Rhollans and Mr. Knost's crew of lunchroom helpers ably carried out their duties of preparing food, running cash registers and carrying food and trays.

Student Helpers Assist Mrs. Lincks And Mrs. McDaniels

The student helpers of the library called pages, are a great asset. They help pupils become acquainted with the location of books and assist them in finding books on certain subjects specified by their teachers. Replacing covers on the older books and stacking books, are the routine duties of the boys. Another job managed by the pages is filling orders sent in by teachers for text books and delivering them.

The Projection Crew Gives Visual Aid Upon Request

The boys on the projection crew receive little reward for the tremendous task they perform. Very few of us realize the responsibility that accompanies the job. These boys must know how to operate the projectors and other visual-aids equipment that may be needed. The members of the crew forfeit their study periods to show movies in the various classes. Mr. Heger and his crew deserve our sincere thanks for their work.

The Junior Achievement chapter here at Withrow has become an active part of the Cincinnati Junior Achievement Program. Each chapter of this organization operates like a big business and members learn to handle problems arising from a large or small enterprise. They manufacture the merchandise which they place for sale. The products, which the group produces and sells, include anything and everything from personalized match folders to practical and handy plastic calendars. The Junior Achievement has a program on radio every Sunday on which several Withrowites have participated. During the years this organization has existed at Withrow many of our students have learned how to compete, produce, and get along in the business world.

The advisers, Mrs. Ladley, Mr. Viering, and Mr. Rhollans of the Literary, Art, and Business Staffs had the help of the newly created Production Staff. This group consisting of Nancy Paine representing the Art Staff, Jim Skeel of the Literary Staff, and under the hectic leadership of Co-ordinating Editor, Barry Franz, along with his "right hand man," Jim Coniglio were responsible for piecing the two hundred and eighty page Annual together. The advisers and production staff kept things running smoothly.

Under the supervision of Mr. Ray Viering, adviser, and Patty Eckman, Art Editor, the Annual Staff functions to the best of its ability to produce an Annual well liked and approved by their fellow students. Countless hours are spent by each member planning pictures, assisting the photographers, and making layouts. All work requires the necessary co-operation and dependability of every individual. This year under the new system section editors were devised. Editors Patty Eckman, Chuck Harris, Carole Lance, Nancy Paine, Dee Robertson, and Gayle Shirmer checked all layouts planned.

A Busy Literary Staff - - Good Copy For Yearbook

J. Tansey, Asst. Editor; S. Edwards, Asst. Editor.

The annual Literary Staff is wholly responsible for writing all necessary copy for the yearbook. Despite the challenging work and frenzied deadlines, a keen feeling of accomplishment emerges when a scribbled assignment changes into a descriptive copy block. The members, in reality, are budding writers who are afforded the rare opportunity and pleasure of viewing their compositions in print. Such experience hardly seems worthwhile, sometimes, when after-school work is required, but the staff's flair for writing means more than leisure hours.

Photography Staff Adds Color And Life To Annual And Paper

The 1957-58 photography staff headed by its editor, Bob Kuhn, under the skillful guidance of its faculty adviser, Mr. Viering, has been doing a wonderful job this year taking pictures for the Annual and Tower News. The staff, consisting of Bob Kuhn, Dale Kistler, Larry Starkey, David Gantz, Paul Handel, and John Reed are often seen after school taking pictures at the various school events in order that others might see the news.

Annual Business And Advertising Staffs Keep The Books Balanced

The annual Business and Advertising Staffs function under the supervision of faculty advisers, Mr. Rhollans and Mr. Viering. The Business staff, directed by Linda Hartman, tabulated and kept a record of all money received by the Annual through the sales of individual pictures, Minstrel tryout tickets, and, of course, yearbooks. The Advertising Staff met with an apparent stumbling block this year when they discovered that it was necessary to sell twenty-two full pages of ads. But Judy Naegel led her staff to uncover all possible clients. Personal interviews and the often repeated sales pitch finally resulted in the Ad Staff's arrival at the set amount.

Homeroom Publication Representatives Handle The Involved Job Of Securing Subscriptions For The Annual And Tower News

Annual and Tower News representatives assumed their many responsibilities early this year. The first duty of the annual representatives was the distribution of individual pictures and the collection of money for them. In February tickets for Minstrel Tryouts were made available to students through each annual representative. Their final duty included taking orders and collecting money for the yearbook. Tower News representatives were chosen this year by members of the paper's staff instead of by homerooms. Their job included delivering the papers every Thursday. These representatives are to be commended on their fine work.

Advisers Supervise Production - - Editors Are Directly Responsible For Publications

Without the many advisers and page editors Tower News members would certainly find it difficult to produce their weekly publication. Because of the superb skill and fine co-operation between the adviser, Mr. Renshaw, and his excellent managers, editors, and staff, this paper has managed an All-American rating. During the first semester of this year Mr. Renshaw was assisted by Miss Karnes. Because of her approaching marriage Miss Karnes was replaced by Miss McGuire. Working side by side with Mr. Renshaw were Tom Williams, editor-in-chief; Judy Scully, business manager; and Bill Banker, advertising manager. Nancy Schick and Susy Hayes covered all the eventful happenings in Tigertown. Two girls who seemed to know all the latest gossip and who liked writing about it for second page were Bonnie Bley and Jane Saunders. If you happened to have something to hide you wouldn't have let it reach the ears of Kathy Oliver or Lee Gwinutt because, being editors of third page, they might have put it in Tower Muse. Something new happened to fourth page. Two girls, Peg Callahan and Lois Mund, were given charge of this sports page, which included G. A. A., as well as boys' sports. The achievements of the advisers, managers, and page editors have made Tower News the entertaining and informative publication it is.

Sixth bell is a busy, as well as profitable, time for the regular Tower News Staff. Each page is equipped with two senior editors and several juniors who supervise the layout of the page, assigning all copy and determining the weekly deadline. In addition, deserving students are chosen as typists; and art, business, and circulation editors are selected from eligible applicants. Publishing a four page paper requires sincere cooperation and depends on the talent, reliability, and attitude of all the staff.

Journalistic Perfection Wins An All-American Rating

After sixth bell the Tower News room is a place of organized chaos. Reporters hurry down to Tower News to complete assignements which are due, and if they are lucky enough to finish their work they help someone else meet a deadline. Being a reporter is not an easy task, but long and hard hours of running down rumors of stories, covering sports events for boys and girls, and finding material for the gossip column brings the reward of becoming an assistant page editor or even an editor of a page. The experience gained by reporting is one that will pay off in years to come. So many hours of patience, effort, and literary skill go into the making of "Tar Nooze" that it is little wonder that the reporters helped bring an All-American rating to the paper.

Through no fault of its own, Tower News was forced this year to cut from a six-page edition to a four-page paper. To seniors, who were proud of having the only six-page paper in Cincinnati, as well as underclassmen, it was a sad day the first shortened issue was delivered. But all was not unpleasant, for Tower News won an All-American rating for the preceding year. Our weekly paper also sponsored several school activities. A Valentine's dance, Cardiac Capers, complete with king and queen, and the election of the most popular seniors were but two of the functions of Tower News besides a weekly issue and several special ones.

With Mr. Martin as both director and mentor, Senior Choir displayed its usual top quality talents again this year. Besides sterling performances in the Spring and Christmas Concerts as well as Minstrels, the choir was repeatedly called on to sing at conventions. The officers who were chosen by the choir as leaders were Bob Ponchot, president; Tim McConnell, vice-president; Nancy Shick, treasurer; while Judy Holm and Carol Forman served as secretaries. Madrigal—the sixteen top singers in the entire Senior Choir—played an important role in the vocal section of Withrow. Known for its "Merry Christmas!" in the Christmas Concert, it did not fail to send a cheery greeting this year. Surely these singers added a great deal to Withrow's program.

Glee Clubs Produce Melodious Music A Result Of Work And Fun

The boys' and girls' glee clubs are two of the musical organizations at Withrow that fall under the leadership of Mr. Martin. Their usual performances include the Thanksgiving program, the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, and the Withrow Minstrels. This year the choirs journeyed to state competition where they copped a superior rating. In the spring they have a picnic when the two clubs join in a day of outdoor fun. Here, hours of practice are forgotten.

While the overture was being presented, the Senior Choir traditionally walked down the aisle carrying burning candles. The Christmas story was narrated most effectively by Debbie High, Alfred Abrams, and Ed Wright. Mr. Ansel C. Martin directed the choral groups which include the Senior and Junior Choirs and Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs. Mr. George G. Smith conducted the Symphonic Band and Brass Ensemble. The String Ensemble was led by Mr. Don Lackey. Climaxing the sacred presentation was the "Hallelujah" from "Messiah."

As autumn brings the football season, along too comes the presentation of our senior high marching band. During the sixth period and after school, our rising musicians practice over and over in the stadium the complicated formations and marches which are given during halftime at our football games. Among the many popular and entertaining musical selections presented this season, the band played their own version of the hit song, "Teddy Bear." For Homecoming, the band and senior choir combined gave a modern rendition of the theme song, "Around the World in Eighty Days." The tricky twirling of our drum major and majorettes in step with the rhythmic music of our accomplished band always brings a thrill to an appreciative audience.

1958 WITHROW MINSTRELS

Tryouts And Practices Are Part Of The Show

"Smittie"

Early spring brings thoughts of our annual Withrow Minstrels. The tryouts are held and the adult advisers begin their trying task of judging and preparing for opening night. The first events that presage the coming of our show are vocal and novelty tryouts. Weeks of practice and hard work show their results when Withrow's talent make their bid for a number in the show. Dancers, as well as singing groups, try to please the judges with their selections. Looks of eager anticipation await the announcement of the winners which is put on the band room bulletin board. In the weeks to follow are tryouts for the pony chorus, endmen, ushers, make-up committee, and presentation orchestra. Long afternoons are spent on the arrangement of numbers and the make-up of dances for the pony chorus. The incidental art staff is busy with posters and all the cast is eager to spread the news of the coming show. At last that long awaited night has come. The participants are in high spirits, for once more they know that the Minstrels will be a success.

All-around Preparation Makes Up The Best Show

The show could not go on if it weren't for the people behind the scenes. The stage crew is responsible for all the properties, the scenery, and the lighting. The crew members rehearse after school and on Saturday mornings. There are countless rehearsals of the crew with the orchestra and performers, for everything must run smoothly. Girls talented with needle and thread create the beautiful costumes. Other girls serve on the make-up committee, while artistically minded students produce the backgrounds and scenery. Without the people who work behind the curtains the Withrow Minstrels would not be the great show it is. The performers, too, work very hard and rehearse for long sessions after school for the big show. The Presentation Orchestra, which provides all the music for the show must also practice. Performers consider the time and effort put into preparation for the show well spent.

May 13, 1958, opened the twenty-eighth Minstrels production. The star-studded show featured a variety of acts and talents. Excitement ran high as cast members waited for the band to give the downbeat of the opening number. Members of the make-up committee found they had gotten more make-up on themselves than on the entertainers. There was last minute primping and fixing of costumes. The usherettes and doormen did their final straightening of ruffled skirts and bow ties. The faculty members in charge of the show issued their last suggestions and instructions. Soon the audience began arriving and the usherettes escorted spectators to their seats. Awaiting the rise of the curtain some of the cast were filled with stage fright; all were filled with excitement.

The Finale Closes Our 1958 Minstrels - "Best Ever!"

"We are the Minstreleers." A thrill runs through the audience as the multi-colored lights are flashed in wandering patterns over the entire cast, especially on closing night. Another successful show has been organized at the expense of weeks of painstaking preparation. The hours of work when the dance routine didn't click, when the band couldn't quite get the correct beat, when the soloists forgot their words, the times when the costumes tore, and the afternoons the committees forgot to meet are forgotten as the thunder of applause from an appreciative audience rolls across the stage—a fine tribute to the 28th consecutive Withrow Minstrels.

Beta Hi-Y, an affiliate of the national society, Y. M. C. A., is made up of junior and senior boys aspiring to better their spiritual strength. Under Mr. Matthews, the club's faculty adviser, a sum of eighty dollars was collected during the year and distributed to various needy families. Jack Kidd, the 1957-58 prexy, directed the boys in numerous activities which helped them develop a true feeling of social responsibility. Earlier in the year, Beta Hi-Y sponsored an open house which was a huge success. Later on, at Easter, an impressive service was conducted in the music room where students received an opportunity to share in the spirit of the season. Certainly, Beta Hi-Y is instrumental in building better Christian citizens of tomorrow.

Lectures And Discussions Prove Educational To History Club

History Club is one of the oldest and most widely known clubs at Withrow. Some of the programs that were given during the past year included talks by Thomas Ellinger on his boyhood in Germany, Miss Treadway on her trip to Iceland last summer, and Mr. Stephens on Abe Lincoln. The advisers were Miss Caveman and Mrs. Hartsell, while Jack Kidd headed the club as president.

Spanish Club Interests Senors And Senoritas

Sponsored by Mrs. Jones and Miss Miceli, the Spanish Club held their meetings once a month. Short skits with dialogue in Spanish and students as actors enlightened these meetings. Other sources of amusement and learning stemmed from Spanish records which were often played. A brief business meeting and refreshments followed these lively sessions. All first year pupils with at least a C average were eligible to come and participate in the club. They were initiated during the first meeting while old members enjoyed themselves.

Le Circle Francais -- Fun And Increased Insight

French Club maintained meetings on the third Tuesday of each month under the guidance of Miss Schroeder, faculty adviser, and Barb Franz, society president. Seasoned travelers such as Miss Leslie and Miss Treadway frequently addressed the organization, discussing the highlights of their journeys abroad. At Christmas, a play, signifying the tiresome job of buying gifts, was dramatized. "How to Please a Salesgirl" was a huge success. Rewarding meetings resulted in enriching the student's appreciation of the French tongue.

Tiger Club Members -- Stars In Varsity Sports

Tiger Club has one, and only one, requirement for boys who wish to join. They must have won a varsity letter in either football, golf, tennis, bowling, track, basketball, baseball, swimming, or cross-country. It had very few meetings last year. Under Mr. Gilliland, Tiger Club sponsored a spring picnic for all those having won a varsity letter. Because of all the leaders in the club no officers were necessary.

Die Deutschvereins -- Active, Stimulating, and Intellectual

The modern version of the classic, "Der Rattenfaenger von Hameln" (The Pied Piper of Hamlin), portrayed above by German Club is characteristic of the frivolity and fun shared by those who belonged. The group headed this year by senior Bill Chidester, held meetings once a month. Every gathering had special features ranging from talks and movies to an annual spring picnic. One serious project of the club was the sending of a Care Package to European refugees. This has been a practice of the organization every year since World War II. Mrs. Nikoloff, faculty adviser, completed the group by adding fun and guiding the club with a firm but kind hand.

The second Wednesday of every month brings a hustle and a sound of laughter from room 151. This is where Gens Togata congregates. Its dramatic skits at each meeting bring either an air of suspense or hilarity into the room. The informal discussion keeps ease among the members which include grades nine through twelve. A lecture of Greek and Roman history and manuscripts, plays in Latin, and slides of Miss Grove's pictures of Europe were features of the programs. In Gens Togata each class is represented by an "aedile" as reporter. Latin Club was organized in 1931 and is celebrating its 27th year at Withrow. It was founded not only for the purpose of learning to appreciate Latin but also with the express desire of having a good time. Assisting the advisers, Miss Grove and Mrs. Maish, was the consul primira, Gail Howard. Gail was a student of Latin for four years and liked to help plan the various programs with interesting songs and plays. The banquet climaxed the year's fun.

Offset Club Takes Care Of Printed Matter At Withrow

A great deal of printed matter is necessary in the functioning of a large high school such as Withrow. Offset Club, headed by Mr. George Haymond, accepted the responsibility of filling our school's need in this one capacity. The tickets for various Withrow shows, booklets for social clubs, programs for Senior Choir's Christmas and Spring Concerts, are all printed by Offset members, along with posters of all kinds, for all purposes. As the date for another school dance approaches different social clubs at Withrow "decorate" the corridors with handbills made-up by offset, one of the most functional clubs at Withrow.

Physics Club Points The Way To Scientific Horizons

The members of Physics Club delve deeply into the mysteries of this intriguing science in order to better understand its principles. Numerous experiments helped to explain the everyday laws of nature while illustrative films displayed other worthwhile information. As a special treat, the group took field trips to the observatory, manufacturing companies, and power stations, thus surveying the daily application of physics to the business world. Mr. Smith's seemingly simple explanations of established principles solved many questions posed by the club's observant and inquisitive members.

Unusual in the sense of unique is the Future Merchandiser's Club. Composed of senior girls, who work three afternoons a week and on Saturday, the club combines education with job experience and social activities. The club visited Childrens' Hospital on Valentine's Day, presenting each child with a favor. They also contributed to the Cancer Fund. Miss Garnet Gooley leads the organization.

Alpha-Y-Teens - - The Goal, To Build Christian Character

A branch of the Y.W.C.A., Alpha-Y-Teens is comprised of girls who are eager to help others as well as enjoy fun and friendship. Packing Easter baskets and similar projects for the needy, aid in building better Christian character. The supervisions of Miss Richmond, faculty adviser, and Holly McCabe, president, helped the organization to experience another successful year.

Modern dancing, which is an art as well as a sport, gives the G.A.A. gals an opportunity to gain poise and grace. Members of Chorean Dance Club met every Thursday under the leadership of Prexy Peg Callahan and Mrs. Barnes who replaced Mrs. Kaichen after the first semester. Dance Club participates each year in a dance symposium held at another school. Here a professional dancer teaches the girls how to express their ideas through graceful movements of the body. Dance Club gave a production for the first P.T.A. Sportsarama at Withrow. The girls held a mothers' tea in April. They were given two colors to interpret in modern moods.

CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN AND INITIATION ROLLED INTO ONE!

Thalian Players Bring School Dramatic Talent

Thalian Players is under the leadership of Miss Rosenberger who worked with and trained the members so that they were able to interpret lines effectively. During the football season skits were given at pep assemblies to stimulate enthusiasm and school spirit in Tigertown. A Christmas party for the Findley Street Neighborhood House was a Thalian goodwill project. Several skits were enacted and Santa Claus passed candy and gifts to the children. Tryouts for the club were held in the spring and fall. For their initiation new members cleaned up the campus while wearing novelty hats. This led to many strange looks from other students who enjoyed the embarrassment of the initiates. Under the supervision of president Patty Eckman, members met once a month to discuss and plan future programs. Other officers were Frank Morin, Elain Grote, Jackie Devore, and Ellen Fagan.

The Dramatic Classes Provide Entertainment

The arts of dramatics and speech serve to improve our manner of expression, expand our vocabulary, and develop our delivery. This section of the curriculum is operated under the supervision of Miss Rosenberger. During extended homeroom, three or four dramatic groups were always available for programs. Amusing monologues and pantomines were the result of their endeavors. At Christmas time, the combined classes presented an inspiring interpretation of the Christ Child's birth. The narrator, Debbie High, devoutly related the beloved testament. Later on, during March, the group performed for the P.T.A. Pep assemblies displayed the acting talents of these aspiring thespians. A well-rounded basic background in dramatics prepares students to meet people in the outside world with poise.

Future Nurses, Eager To Serve Mankind, Learn Through Experience And Advice

The Future Nurses of America Club, an organization with many branches in schools throughout the United States, successfully completed its first year at Withrow with Donna Wendt acting as president. Eagerly supporting it were many sophomores, juniors, and seniors, who are planning to enter some field of medicine. The membership either equalled or exceeded that of other Cincinnati high schools where this club has been established for several years. The members were advised in the activities by a group of mothers, some of whom were former registered nurses. During this year, the girls were able to earn pins by volunteering their services in hospitals, churches, or community projects. The instructors, Mrs. Rodwell, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Pfeiffer taught various new principles which will prove of great benefit to the future medics in their chosen fields. At Christmas time they made colorful novelty favors and gave them to childrens' homes and hospitals. With the expert aid and supervision of Miss Blasberg, faculty adviser, these future nurses have received useful knowledge and experience which will equip them for their worthwhile service to humanity.

Youth For Christ Club Shows Christian Endeavor

With Miss Irwin and Miss Kozaki as co-advisers, Youth for Christ completed a successful year. Officers for the club were Jeanette Chandler, president; Mary Ann Glover, vice president; and Shirley Hammitt, secretary. In addition to regular meetings, the club members joined city wide rallies held downtown on Saturday nights. Competition was keen among the various schools, in attendance and in knowledge of the Bible. Guest speakers highlighted many Thursday afternoons as the club strove to provide Christian fellowship for interested students. Tom Wells, a minister concerned with missions, Ward Patterson, from the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, a mixed quartette, and our own Bob Ponchot were but a few of the speakers for the meetings. A considerable increase in membership makes the future of the club look bright.

SOCIAL CLUBS

Interfratority Council co-ordinates the functions and activities of all Withrow social clubs in an attempt to maintain friendly relations among the organizations. The membership of this advisory body includes the leaders of each individual club. Regular meetings are held each month to discuss policies and standards and to settle problems. Interfratority Council supervises the several phases of rushing and selects the dates for all the affairs presented by the various groups. The initiation of new members occurs after three preliminary parties are held. Elaborate planning of these gala events results in keen competition among the clubs in their efforts to impress the sophomore class. The customary make-up of the first affair is a "get-acquainted coke party," the second event is a formal afternoon tea, and the third party usually includes a buffet supper. Friendly criticism and faculty guidance light the way to solution of common problems and serve tc improve the strength of our social standards.

Social Clubs Encourage Fun And Worthy Projects

A rush party is not a spontaneous affair. For months meetings have been held during which each party is carefully planned. The planning committees must consider, among other things, cost and originality of the theme of the party. After rushing, the new pledges of the girls' social clubs are officially notified of their acceptance by a serenade. In many houses on the night of the serenade, anticipation is at a peak. The culmination of uncertain weeks of rushing and harrowing days of pledging is the formal initiation. An inspiring and impressive moment is the reading of the constitution by the president and the taking of the oath by the newest members of the club. They are now proud, active members of an organization which can provide them with many pleasant memories.

A popular part of Withrow's routine is the annual dances sponsored by the school's social clubs. Then comes the Big Night, when amid enthusiastic cheers, the king and queen are crowned. During the evening, entertainment by talented performers provides real pleasure.

BERMUDA PARTY—FINAL GATHERING OF ALTRUIST RUSHEES.

"Slumber parties, open houses, and fun galore" typify the Altruist girls. Two old clothes parties with skits by the sophomore class and formals at Kenwood and North Bend Inn fill out the year. The Annual Windy Whirl, co-sponsored by Tri Chi, was held at the U.C. Ballroom this spring. The spirit of Altruism is shown by sending boys to camp, making trips to Longview, and giving baskets to needy families. The AXD's invade Lakeside during August for a week of swimming, sunning, and "senior preference."

Oh A.B.K., Oh sisterhood, you are one and the same. You've taught your members the meaning of friendship and sharing, working and playing. It was for you and your future that we spent every spare moment working on "Rushing" details. We shall always remember the warm glow of Christmas tide that seemed to fill the air, as we entered the Christmas formal in our best evening apparel. Also, when we think of sisterhood, the rummage sale, slumber parties, old clothes parties and Lake James in the summer, are brought to mind. Yes, Alpha Beta Kappa you've helped make this year one worth relating as we ended this volume in our life with the banquet, the prophecy, senior gifts, and the gala formal itself with the scent of perfume and the feeling of youth.

EVERY INCH A QUEEN, KATHY OLIVER RIDES BEFORE STANDS.

A group of girls where sisterhood is foremost is Beta Omega Chi. These forty-five girls worked together closely to make their social club stand out. To start their social activities the B.O.X. girls gave a dance in the boys' gyms in October. As the dance took place near Halloween it was appropriately named "Superstitious Stomp." During rushing the traditional three parties were given and each seemed to be more fun than the preceeding one. At Christmastime it was decided that the Yuletide spirit could be carried out by sending food to a needy family. The spring dance was held at Macketewah Country Club.

The school year of 1957-58 opened for Kytyves with the planning of rush parties, but as Thanksgiving holidays approached, they were found engrossed in the sale of Wishbone Whirl tickets. The cold chill of winter winds provided the background for their Christmas formal and early spring brought thoughts of selling carnations on Valentine's and St. Patrick's Day. An eventful year came to a close with ABTAK and their spring formal. These activities gave the girls pleasure, but supplying a family with a basket of food and a tree on Christmas brought them satisfaction and pride.

CONFUSION PREVAILS AT TALLY-HO MEETINGS WHEN GIRLS GATHER TO DISCUSS POLICIES AND PARTIES.

"Tally-Ho, that means a lot to me"—the strains of a traditional sorority song recall fond memories of fun and fellowship in a friendly social club. The initiation of the rushees was climaxed with a slumber party and progressive dinner. During the Christmas season, the girls sold festive wrapping paper and ribbon to help finance the holiday formal. Around St. Patrick's Day, Tally-Ho celebrated the "wearing of the green" by presenting its annual dance, Twin Twinkle. A charity project at Easter consisted of the girls visiting the Children's Convalescent Home.

DISMISSAL BELL BRINGS AN AFTERNOON GAB FEST.

Zeta Beta Kappa, better known as Z. B. K., has made quite a name for itself since its founding in 1932. Scattered throughout the year were hayrides and bake sales which promoted fun and the spirit of fellowship among the Z. B. K.'s. Slumber parties and gab-fests proved popular to the Z. B. K. gals as they do to all girls. The night of the Christmas formal found them radiant, beautifully attired, and excited. As the weeks quickly passed, the girls had several projects, the most important of which was furnishing clothes, food, and toys to a needy family. They completed their school year with a lovely spring formal. As the close of school approached Z. B. K.'s proudly recalled another successful season.

A Boat, Cokes, A Dance -- Diversified Activities

There are many ways in which a social club provides enjoyment for its members. Once strangers, new friends meet for fun and fellowship or perhaps a refreshing after-school snack down at the square. Friday or Saturday nights spent with pals or an interesting movie at a neighborhood theater offer a chance for gals and guys to forget their studies and look toward a fun-filled evening. Many social clubs entertain their dates and friends at formal and informal holiday dances, and date parties enliven otherwise dull weekends. Throughout the year, a wide variety of special events and activities is offered to satisfy the interest of the many social club participants.

Chi Sig experienced one of their busiest years in 1957-58. The Chi Sigs gave their sports program a boost by capturing the basketball championship and sharing the football supremacy. The Withrow gym was the scene of Chi Sig's Dixieland Doin's where Dixieland albums were presented as door prizes. Many parties, a formal, and a hayride combined to make the year active. Hard work and good support brought about the crowning of Mike Simpson, king of Cardiac Capers. Delta Sigma Chi, Tigertown's newest social club, was organized in May of 1957. A jaunty cruiser, docked at the Ohio River Yacht Club, was the scene of several informal meetings. The club's mascot, Sambo, a saucy cocker spaniel, always succeeded in obtaining the members' attention. At the Christmas party this year, the Delts blew two boxes of fuses in their attempt for a successful evening. In tearing down several houses for the expansion of the Oakley Evangelical and Reformed Church, the boys performed a worthwhile service to the community. The Delts' sincere attitude in their endeavors resulted in the early payment of initial debts.

Coaches And Cheerleaders - - Part Of The Football Scene

What are the requirements for a football team? Certainly you must have a supply of boys willing and capable. You must have a staff of coaches who can instruct their charges in the ways and hows of the game. You must have proper equipment and have managers to keep it in good condition. And last, but not least, you must have school support led by peppy cheerleaders. Captained by Jim Bornhoffer, Tom Justin, and Jim Reed, the team sported a 3-3 record in P. H. S. L. competition. Several of the boys made the P. H. S. L. All-Star Squad and Tom Justin made Post's and Time Star's All-City choice.

BONNIE BLEY—WITHROW'S PIGSKIN PREVIEW QUEEN.

The annual Pigskin Preview, in which each of the public high schools participated, was again held at Trecter Stadium. As this was the first public appearance of the 1957 squads, each team was eager to discover the strength of the other. Opponents were determined just before the game when sealed envelopes were opened. Th latter were entrusted to the seven girls who presided as G. A. A. presidents in their respective schools, and the number in their envelope corresponded to one which another school possessed. Bonnie Bley aptly represented Withrow in the drawing. Parents joined with students and rallied to support each school in its endeavors.

Elder Forfeits To Withrow In Tigers' Initial Contest

Withrow opened the 1957 football season with a "win" over Elder. Actually the Tigers were victorious through a forfeit due to an ineligible player in the Panther ranks. In the game itself Withrow was downed 26-6. Paul Umberg led the Elder scoring with three of its four touchdowns. The deceptive quarterback scored late in the first period when, after Withrow fumbled on the fourteen yard line, he scampered around end for eleven big yards and six points. The Tigers started to move in the second quarter when they advanced from their own twenty all the way to paydirt. Millhouse, Stewart, and Thomas led the attack the entire route with Millhouse punching over from the one. The extra point was missed, however, and the two teams were deadlocked 6-6 at the half. Withrow was humbled in the second half as Elder swept the Tigers' flanks for three touchdowns and a short-lived 26-6 victory.

First Quarter Pass Gives Xavier Sufficient Margin

Withrow met the Xavier Bombers for their second game and dropped a heartbreaker. With only three minutes gone by in the first quarter, quarterback Apking flipped a pass to Boneau on the twelve who scampered over for Xavier's lone touchdown. For the remainder of the game both teams moved the ball well but neither were able to score. The Tigers started a big drive early in the second quarter when they moved from their own twenty-five all the way to the Xavier fourteen before losing the ball on downs. Xavier threatened late in the third period when they moved from their own thirty-six to Withrow's two yard line where the Tigers dug in and threw the Bombers back to the thirteen. All hopes of the Tigers winning were shattered when late in the fourth quarter Heekin was hit hard and fumbled, after a fine punt return. Millhouse and Stewart were the principal ground gainers while the entire Tiger line performed ably.

Cavaliers Skunk Tigers Withrow Needs A Breather

Withrow lost its third game of the year to the Cavaliers by the lopsided score of 67-0, much to the surprise of the Tiger fans. The Withrow eleven got off to a bad start by fumbling into the end zone after a few short gains. Purcell recovered and, with the extra point good, made the score 7-0. For the remainder of the first quarter neither team scored but the Cavaliers took only one play in the second quarter to score another touchdown. Before the end of the first half, Withrow's arch enemies had proven their superior ability both from an offensive and defensive standpoint, as the score was 33-0. During the third quarter Purcell scored twice more, once with the help of a forty yard pass. Before the end of the game, despite the futile tries of the Tigers, Purcell tallied three more times. Because of the poor showing of Withrow in the last two years against Purcell, this annual classic has been discontinued.

COMBS AND KLEINSCHMIDT ABRUPTLY END MAYER'S BID FOR A TOUCHDOWN.

Defense Defeats Woodward! Lone Touchdown Is Margin

Withrow opened P. H. S. L. competition with a narrow win over Woodward. The Tigers scored early in the second quarter when Millhouse crashed over from the one. The drive started on the Tigers' forty-five with Thomas, Stewart, and Millhouse carrying the pigskin. The Tiger defense was put to the test in this game as the Bulldogs had the ball inside the Withrow ten yard line three times. Woodward dominated the statistics with eight first downs compared to Withrow's five. Woodward moved the ball well until they were deep in Withrow territory where the Tiger defense tightened up and the Bulldogs were halted. Withrow, however, had difficulty on offense. Aside from the Tigers' touchdown drive Withrow just couldn't move the ball. Although the offense performed weakly, the defense was constantly alert and even though it was frequently dented it was not scored upon.

THE HALF WAS MADE MEMORABLE BY THE BEAUTIFUL STRAINS OF THE CHOIR'S "AROUND THE WORLD."

Our Band Performs At Homecoming 1957 -- Tigers Vs. Eagles

"Around the world I searched for you" was heard at half-time from the band and Senior Choir. Withrow Tigers were host to Walnut Hills on their own field at the Annual Homecoming game. Before the game each fraternity and sorority had its own decorated car in which its candidate for king or queen of Homecoming that evening was to ride. Even though the Tigers were defeated, there was a crowd at the Homecoming dance. And what a dance—beautiful music by one of Withrow's own bands, the Hi-Fi's and finally the announcement of the Homecoming king and queen, Jim Reed and Kathie Oliver, respectively.

Withrow lost the only game played on its own field to Walnut Hills, 20-13. Walnut Hills did not wait too long after receiving the kick-off to score. The Eagles' first touchdown was climaxed by Schiering's 44 yard run to pay dirt. Withrow was unable to prevent Walnut Hills from scoring once more early in the next quarter when Schiering scored again, this time from the 16. The half ended with the Tigers on the bottom 13-0. Withrow's team made its first score on a thirty yard pass from Cunningham to Stewart. In the fourth quarter Stewart again scored, but Cox saved the game for the Eagles by scoring from the 35.

Tigers Come Back From Defeat For An Easy Win Over Taft

Withrow won its second league game by whitewashing Taft 26-0. In the first quarter the Tigers quickly advanced into Taft territory with long runs by Thomas and Stewart. Tiger back, Millhouse then went over from the 15. With the extra point good, Withrow got off to an early 7-0 lead. The Tigers, taking the ball back from the Senators, did not gain much ground until Cunningham tossed an 18 yard pass to Haynes, who raced 16 more yards for the touchdown. The half ended with the score 13-0. In the next half Taft recovered a Withrow fumble on its 8. Soon the Senators kicked the ball into the arms of Millhouse, who ran 58 yards for Withrow's third tally. Near the end of the game, after Johnson made Withrow's fourth touchdown, Taft went to the air in an attempt to score. Stewart intercepted a Taft pass and ran 68 yards before being dropped on the 4, ending the game.

Middletown Downs Tigers As Sportmanship Prevails

A second-half rally gave Middletown a narrow win over Withrow in the Tigers' seventh game of the season. Withrow drew first blood when Thomas scored from ten yards out, early in the second quarter. Withrow drove from its own sixteen, eighty-four yards for the score. A thirty-nine yard pass play from Cunningham to Stewart set up the touchdown. The Tigers almost scored again in the half when they advanced all the way to the Middie two before losing the ball on downs. The Tigers led at the half 7-0. Both Middletown and Withrow failed to score in the third period. The Middies, however, under the direction of Wallace, all-state quarterback, came back in the final period to register two markers. Withrow tried to halt the Middie attack but Middletown was fired up and just wouldn't be stopped. A noteworthy factor of the game was the good sportsmanship and fair play that both teams practiced.

Central gained the P. H. S. L. crown by downing the Tigers 19-0 in a rough and heavily penalized game. Central broke into the scoring column early in the game as Charlie Heard bowled over from the two. Heard led the drive starting from the Withrow forty-nine by gaining forty-eight of the yards himself. During the second quarter Withrow advanced to the Central twenty before losing the ball on downs. Central went into the locker room at the half sporting a 6-0 lead. The Tigers started the second half in a beautiful fashion. Withrow kicked off to Central and Phillips received the ball and started upfield. He was soon hit hard by Justin and fumbled. Withrow then deployed an "I" type offense but it wouldn't move and Central took over on downs. Central's Heard tallied twice more in the half to end the scoring. Withrow contained the vaunted Knight offense well until penalties crippled the Tigers.

Third Period Touchdown Provides Margin

Withrow, seeking revenge from Western Hills, was caught on the short end of the score as the Mustangs eked out a 12-7 victory. West Hi scored first when they marched fifty-nine yards for the touchdown. A twenty-six yard pass play from Horton to Hayes netted the tally. Withrow struck back in the same quarter when the Tigers drove ninety-nine yards. This drive was the longest of the season for Withrow. John Millhouse accounted for sixty-eight of the yards himself and it was this all P.H.S.L. halfback who scampered thirty-two yards for the touchdown. Withrow converted the extra point and the half ended with the Tigers leading 7-6. West Hi scored again, early in the third period as Hayes burst eight yards for the touchdown. The extra point was blocked and Withrow fought desperately for a touchdown. The fourth quarter was battled with each team playing hard football but West Hi held the Tigers.

Millhouse Leads Tigers To Win Over Hughes As Season Closes

The Tigers won the last game of the season largely through the efforts of John Millhouse. The entire team performed better than in previous games, but Millhouse's T.D.'s led the way. Withrow scored twice in the first period on runs by Bruckner and Millhouse. Hughes failed to cross midfield during this period. During the second quarter Millhouse scampered thirty-seven yards for another tally and Hughes was again held. During the third quarter both teams scored once and the scoreboard read Withrow 25 and Hughes 7 entering the final period. Hughes rose up mightily in the final quarter to score two markers, but Withrow won 32-20.

With a record of three won and three lost, the reserve football team, under the direction of Mr. Hauck, experienced an eventful and challenging season this year. Many of the team members were fortunate enough to see varsity action and thus furnished additional spark and skill to the reserve squad. Afternoon practices served to improve the speed of the ball carriers and strengthen the ability of the line. Supported in all their contests by loyal Withrow students, the Tigers displayed spirit and enthusiasm in every phase of the game, eager to make a good showing for their school. Reserve football is just another of the opportunities Withrow offers for future athletes to develop.

Withrow Frosh Develop Late, Come Back From Two Losses For 3-3 Record

Withrow's freshman football team, coached by Mr. Sleight, was handicapped by having to practice without any equipment until after its first game with Walnut Hills. This year's Junior High team was the lightest Withrow has put on the field in the last few years, with an average of 140 lbs. In the first game, J. Selbert, star quarterback, was injured and unable to play for the remainder of the season. Only such outstanding players as T. James, and D. Fraser prevented the Cubs from ending with worse than a 3-3 record. In spite of all mishaps the team progressed rapidly and went on to climax the season by defeating Cutter 25-0.

Cross Country Had Poor Year And Placed Sixth

One of the oldest sports known to man is cross-country. The Greek Marathon was one of the first varieties of this sport. This year Withrow had eighteen runners participating in either the reserve or varsity team. Under their coach, Mr. Howard Higgins, the cross-country team copped a sixth in P.H.S.L. competition. Maybe you have noticed a number of boys running up and down the stadium steps. They aren't crazy but are merely undergoing one of the strenuous exercises needed to prepare a boy for cross-country competition. Long practice sessions are commonplace for endurance is of utmost importance.

The slap, slap of a basketball being dribbled down the hardcourt, the whisper of the basket cords, then the released shout of the spectators were often heard sounds during Withrow's basketball season. Coached by Mr. Huheey and led by captain Ed Gibson, Dick Burdick, Jerry Cunningham, Joby Haynes and Curt Thomas were ably supported by a fine bench, aside from the team effort put forth by the boys, Joby Haynes scorched the cords for a 16.5 average placing him in a tie for third in the P.H.S.L. in scoring. Curt Thomas also finished high in this field.

Withrow's varsity basketball team was stricken with one of its worst seasons. The Tigers sported a 6-12 record in all games and a 6-6 record in P.H.S.L. competition which gave them a tie for fourth place. It is interesting to note that Withrow did not win one non-league contest. Whether or not this was due to stiffer competition or a poorer Withrow showing cannot be determined. The Tigers started out very poorly but towards the end of the season the team began rolling and provided the opposition stiffer competition. This year's team featured three sophomores in the starting lineup and three more on the bench. Although Withrow was not seeded in the Southwestern Ohio Tournaments the Tigers advanced to the second round before they were defeated by Sycamore by just one point. Under Mr. Huheey, the Tigers rarely afforded a boring game. Many games went into overtime play. With eight boys returning, the team ought to improve next year.

Before each varsity basketball game, the reserve squad went into action. With Bond Elam, John Halsted, Al Heckman, Jeff McConnell, and Dave Ross as the starting lineup, the Tiger Reserve team gained valuable experience if not actual wins. Coached by Mr. Rolfes, the team sent Bill Tate to the varsity for season play, while Al Heckman and Dave Ross were moved up for the tournament.

Frosh Basketball Team Captures League Championship

The Withrow Freshman Basketball Team ended one of its most successful seasons this year. Thirteen wins and one loss is evidence enough of the team's prowess. The Frosh combined height, in Knost, with speed and accurate shooting to become one of the area's finest. The junior high hoopsters had a new coach in Mr. Willie Ernst. Mr. Ernst played for the University of Cincinnati in his college days. The Cubs only loss came from Samuel Ach when they were downed 45-28. The Frosh gained revenge, however, when they met again.

Tigertown's Bowling Team Finishes In Second Division

The Withrow Bowling Club serves a dual purpose. The club is composed of thirty students who meet once a week at Stone's Bowling Alley to compete among themselves. The thirty boys are then divided into six evenly-matched teams. The six with the highest averages in club competition that week are on the varsity bowling team. The team thus varies somewhat each week in its members. This plan is being used in most of the other high schools in the city. The team and club are under the direction of Mr. Keith Wieland. This year the bowling team experienced a rather lean season. The Tiger keglers dropped to fifth in P.H.S.L. competition. Any boy interested in bowling is welcome to participate in the club and try to make the bowling team.

Withrow's Track Team Vies For The P. H. S. L. Crown

Withrow's cindermen began their season impressively with two early wins. In league competition they soundly trounced Taft, Woodward, and Walnut Hills. Mr. Higgins, as track coach, built his team around a nucleus consisting of half-miler Dennis McCarthy, dasher Rich Christy, pole vaulters Tom Justin and Jim Bornhoffer, broadjumper and hurdler Dave Kleinschmidt, mile relayers Dick Hertzberg, Andy Fitzpatrick, Marvin Cantrell, and Alonzo Vincent, and shot putter John Harris. Building a winning team is only part of Mr. Higgins and his assistant Mr. Huheey's job, as they strive to instill in the boys the spirit and character of a TEAM. It is the spirit of teamwork that will enable them to look back on their life and be able to forget individual glories won and remember that the team triumphed. Therefore when the gun sounds to start the race, when the relayers feel the slap of the baton, when the pole vaulters fail to feel the bar snap as they pass over, when the hurdlers clear the obstacles—then will a team with a winning spirit be built.

Junior High Track Team Experienced A Fine Year

The junior high track team got the season off in a fine fashion by defeating Walnut Hills, Taft, and Woodward in a P.H.S.L. meet. Under the direction of Mr. Huheey and Mr. Higgins, the team strives to build a winning spirit and a closely knit team. The junior high team serves a dual purpose. It offers junior high boys a chance to compete in some track meets with other boys of their own age. It also offers the boys valuable experience from which they can ably qualify in varsity track in the years to come. The junior high events are patterned after the varsity program but are usually shortened. Many boys who go out for track have several reasons in mind. Besides wanting to participate in track competition, they also go out to "work out" and stay in shape for other sports in which they might take part. The entire track program starts with the boys' active participation in this team.

Withrow Diamondmen Set High Goals. Good Luck!

Coached by Richard Hauck, the Tiger diamond men started the season off well by defeating Anderson, 3-2. Griess started and held the Redskins hitless for the first three innings. Kidd and Caldwell finished the game. The Bengals next took on Walnut Hills. Arnold pitched a one-hitter, whitewashing the Eagles 6-0. In the third game, Caldwell, Haynes, and Dew combined their pitching efforts and polished off Purcell in good form 6-3. Confident after three wins, the Tigers were surprised by Taft 8-6. Thomas, Griess, and Caldwell pitched, with Griess taking the loss. Withrow's team has been hitting well as is clearly evident from the four game total of 21 runs for the Tigers against 13 for their opponents. The starting lineup at the beginning of the season was as follows: Elder, a junior, at catch; Reed, a senior, and a letterman for two years, at first base; Hodge, a senior, at second; Cunningham, a sophomore, at shortstop; Millhouse, a senior, at third; Handley, a junior, in left; Jackson, a senior, in right.

Spring Turns Young Men's Fancies To Tennis

A returning letterman in tennis, Barry Franz was almost always able to attain a winning score. With three years of varsity experience, he played first string singles.

Withrow's '56-'57 varsity tennis team set a new record by accumulating thirty-seven out of forty possible points. With five returning lettermen, Withrow's '57-'58 team was highly touted. Those who had played tennis last year and hoped to play this year all vied in an inter-school tourney with Jenike coming out on top. This year's seniors were Franz, Kuhn, and Kistler. With a small but faithful following the varsity netsters took their first five matches from both league and non-league schools. They defeated Wyoming, a bitter rival, 3-2. After their league matches the team as a whole plays in a city tournament. The teams that play in it are from greater Cincinnati. From the district meet the players finishing in the semi-finals are allowed to go to the state meet in Columbus.

Two of the Withrow tennis team's star players, Bob Kuhn and Dale Kistler, demonstrate their tennis skills in their first doubles game. Concentration is important for a player's success.

Tom Jenike, a sophomore, is Withrow's finest tennis prospect. His position on the team this year was second singles.

During his first year on the varsity tennis team, sophomore Fred Nagelson proved his worth as third singles star.

Our Tiger reserve netmen, coached by Mr. Sherman, boast of an unusually fine squad. The team is made up of junior high boys and offers them a chance to meet competition from other schools they wouldn't ordinarily face. The team is also a good source for the boys to get the basic training that is necessary. Tennis is a vigorous sport which takes hours of practice to perfect. Some of the essentials of a good player are proper foot work, balance, and sportsmanship. We are very fortunate to have a reserve team to train the boys for the varsity squad.

Tankmen Take Second In District Competition

The Withrow varsity swimming team concluded another successful season. Under the direction of Mr. Meador the team took a third place rating in P.H.S.L. competition and a second in the district meet. Several Tigers placed in their events throughout the season: Lobring in the one hundred yard free-style; Tims in the one hundred and fifty individual medley; Tims, Hirt, Herrlinger, and Lobring placed second in the district in the two hundred medley relay; Schroetel, Heekin, Lobring, and Herrlinger in the two hundred yard free style: Schroetel in the fifty yard free style; Brum in the one hundred yard butterfly; Tims undefeated in the backstroke; and Heekin and Glueck in diving.

A typical scene at Hyde Park Country Club in the spring is the presence of many golfers who are representing their respective schools and vieing for the city championship. This year Withrow was strengthened by the presence of Tom Heekin, Bob Quebman and the Tuttle brothers, all returning lettermen. Coached by Mr. Munger, the team has the potential strength to attain some of its goals which, of course, are the P.H.S.L. crown and the city title. If these should be won the team would be eligible to compete in state competition and, who knows, it's possible!

Presiding Officers Lead In The Participation Of Activities

Girls Athletic Association, better known as G.A.A., satisfies any active girl's desire for wholesome fun and all around good times with varied sports and activities at Tigertown. The G.A.A. board, consisting of Bonnie Bley, president; Gayle Schirmer, vice president; Lois Gwinner, corresponding secretary; Joyce Bley, recording secretary; Jane Saunders, treasurer; Nancy Shick, historian; Nancy Van Epps, Jr. High adviser; is constantly busy throughout the year with seasonal functions, assemblies, and parties to keep the G.A.A.er's hopping. Planning money projects and entertainment for the organization are also some of G.A.A.'s other goals. During football season, selling programs by volunteer members of G.A.A. might seem like hard work but there is always fun accompanying it.

G. A. A. Advisers And Managers Preside Over The Seasonal Sports

G.A.A., an important institution here at Withrow, continued its exciting activities again this year through the efforts of our advisers and student sports managers. At the beginning of the second semester the lively but smooth southern accent of Miss Jollene Barnes, who replaced Mrs. Kaichen as a gym instructor and G.A.A. adviser, was heard in Tigertown. The managers who were chosen by members of G.A.A. took over their duties this year with fervor and helped maintain ideals of sportsmanship and fair play.

Varied Activities Represent Enthusiasm In G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association ran smoothly under the leadership of Mrs. Lally and this year's officers: Bonnie Bley, president; Gayle Schirmer, vice president; Joyce Bley, secretary; Jane Saunders, treasurer; and Nancy Shick, historian. To commence the year the annual membership drive was held. Points from individual sports and bowling, plus a small nominal fee, were the requirements for joining. At Christmas the officers trimmed the Christmas tree displayed in Withrow's main hall. The faculty playday, dance symposium, and water pageant also highlighted the year. On Memorial Day the members sold forget-me-nots for the Disabled Veterans. Fair play and good sportsmanship were cultivated by the organization's activities and sports, a few of which are volleyball, baseball, and basketball. To culminate the year a banquet was held and Honor Girl was announced.

The Lure Of Hockey And Basketball Drew Withrow's Many Girls To The Busy, Activity-crammed Girls' Athletic Association

Autumn afternoons found G.A.A. girls indulging in the vigorous sport of field hockey. Because of the danger associated with this game, shin guards were required. The traditional opening bully signified that the game was off to a flying start. The alert forward line anxiously rushed in to receive the ball, then dribbled and passed it to their teammates—immediate objective, another goal. As the Withrow campus changed to a winter wonderland, so the G.A.A. members' thoughts centered on the winter sports of volleyball and basketball. The many teams organized were just one evidence of the intense interest in these sports. A referee's course offered applicants the basic rules and penalties. Honor and class teams and playdays spurred participation in G.A.A. and also earned extra points for awards. Hockey, volleyball, basketball—three ingredients of G.A.A. memories.

BOWLING—A GAME OF SUSPENSE—AS THE BALL TRAVELS DOWN THAT LONG, LONG ALLEY TO THE PINS.

G. A. A. 'ers Vigorously Backed Spring Sports

As spring rolled around, G.A.A. members wound up the winter sports. Bowling was completed early in April, and plans for spring sports got underway. On the first sunny April afternoon tennis enthusiasts raced out to the courts and vigorously indulged in their favorite pastime. After many weeks of practice various members participated in city-wide tournaments. During the first few weeks of April, along with tennis, individual sports were started. Two of the most outstanding of these sports were shuffleboard and archery. While some G.A.A.er's jammed the tunnel and participated in shuffleboard, others met on the football field where the invigorating sport of archery was conducted. The most popular of the spring season sports was softball. Hundreds of G.A.A. members signed up for one of their favorite games. When the weather permitted, every baseball diamond was filled with girls shouting "Play ball!"

Shrieks of laughter and the sounds of splashing could be heard coming from the girls' swimming pool as Dolphin Club practiced for its bi-annual water pageant. The theme for this year's show was "A Gander at Mother Goose." Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Leslie, faculty adviser; Bethany Watts, president; Nancy Paine, vice president; and Judy Burkham, secretary-treasurer the best swimmers of each class were chosen as members. Fun and hard work followed, as the club practiced long hours to perfect the swimming routines. Three performances for the student body and parents were the results of weeks of rehearsing. Dolphin was also hostess to the boys' swimming team for a party in the spring. Competition was keen as the speedy swimmers sped down the pool during the swimming meets. The year was climaxed by a day of swimming and fun at Coney Island.

Officers Of Junior High G. A. A. Handle Many Responsibilities

S. Nagel; J. Yeager; C. Donahue—Managers.

Miss Mabel Robinson—Adviser.

There are many different kinds of sports to take the interest of the junior high girls who participate in G.A.A. Hockey, tumbling, soccer, basketball, and volleyball are some of the many activities that are enjoyed. Junior High Girls' Athletic Association is under the competent direction of Miss Robinson. Three years ago junior high G.A.A. came into effect. The officers, with Barbara Gwinner, as president, Pat Crowley as vice president, and Eileen Donnely, secretary and treasurer, helped make a successful year.

The junior high edition of Dolphin Club resumed its various activities in the early part of the year. Members of this organization met faithfully once a week to share experience and fun. These meetings provided the opportunity for the girls to see their friends and enjoy a vigorous and refreshing sport. During November and December confusion and noise filled the gyms as volleyball season got underway. Referees, attempting to shout their decisions above the constant chaos, proved humorous. Volleyball was a sport which was popular amongst all these junior high girls because it required skill, thought, and agility.

PRINCIPLES OF SAFE DRIVING INCLUDE A KNOWLEDGE OF THE MOTOR.

Mr. Rigney, the driver's training instructor, stresses safety and good sportsmanship in driving. The subject matter includes changing a tire and learning the name and operation of each part. At the close of six weeks the student is qualified to apply for a license.

ALAS FOR THE POOR UNDERCLASSMAN WITHOUT A CORRIDOR PASS!

A new plan instituted this year by the administration was the corridor pass. Pupils who found it necessary to leave a classroom were required to carry a pass issued by the teacher. A trip to the office was in store for any who failed to conform to the rule. The system was instrumental in apprehending "class cutters" and non-Withrow people roaming our halls.

CAREER CONFERENCES PROVE INTERESTING TO STUDENTS.

Rings, Prom, And Conferences -- But There's A Bigger Year Ahead

THRIFTY JUNIORS COUNT PENNIES IN ANTICIPATION OF PROM.

Three occurrences highlighted the life of every Withrow junior this year. Along with cold, wintry November came the thrill of the Career Conferences. Various businessmen and educators gave up part of their valuable time to come and lecture on a wide variety of employment aspects. Pupils were able to select any three sections they wished to attend As the days sped by the juniors anxiously awaited the fifth day of February. The reason—they could order their class rings. With the purchase of the '59 rings, all thoughts turned to the junior prom. Everyone began the tedious job of counting his or her money. Hopes and dreams of a successful prom lingered in the heart of every single junior.

Proud Pledges Adhere To Demand Of Active Members

KAPPAS RUSH TO THE FIRST NIGHT OF INITIATION.

MOPPING FLOOR—CONSTRUCTIVE PLEDGING.

SHOWING OFF NEW PLEDGE PINS IS GREAT SPORT.

The relief and satisfaction of being accepted in a social club is short lived for the pledges, as two weeks of rugged pledging begins within two or three days of acceptance. Constructive orders, such as cleaning out dirty basements and washing cars and windows, are given. The sillier aspects of pledging are not forgotten, as pledges are required to carry boxes of candy and chewing gum, to show respect to the actives by doing air raids, to sit on Santa Claus' lap while eating lollipops, and to wash floors with toothbrushes. Failure to comply to the wishes of the actives brings demerits down on the heads of the pledges. These can be reduced by merits or worked off during the initiation. Everything is not all black for the pledges when they remember that next year they will be giving orders.

JUNE, PETRIFIED BUT BRAVE, APPROACHED THE WRITHING BLACK SNAKE.

Withrow's students are very fortunate in attending a school in which there is such a variation of material for our assemblies. Besides professional programs our school's own music department provided enjoyment for students through the Christmas, and Spring Concerts and pep assemblies.

A PARENT AND TEACHER COME TO A CLOSER ASSOCIATION IN ORDER TO HELP THE STUDENT IN HIS WORK.

PARENTS' NIGHT PROVIDES TIME TO MEET TEACHERS.

Parent's Night Brings School Closer To Home

The open house prior to two years ago was the method by which the parents of Withrow students met the teachers of their children. By this method a parent visited any teacher he wished, at anytime he chose. This method proved very unsatisfactory, as long lines of anxious parents formed at the door of a few teachers while no lines at all formed at the door of many teachers. Without standing in line most of the night it was almost impossible for a parent to see a teacher. As a result of these troubles a new plan was adopted by the P.T.A. In this new program, held every year in November, the parents were to follow the exact schedules which their children followed. Ten minutes was allowed for each period, in which time the parents could ask questions of the teacher. During the child's gym or study period the parents were given a period in which they could talk over problems with some particular teacher. For the older generation ten minutes instead of five was allowed between classes.

During the year the junior high pupils sponsored a clean-up project around Withrow's campus. Supervised by Miss Nolan, these students raised money through a Mother's Day flower sale. Professional landscapers were hired with this money to plant bulbs of various plants in the circle at the rear and in the Rookwood garden surrounding the fountain in front of Withrow; the hill above the parking lot was renewed with two dozen Weigela bushes and some flowering fruit trees.

JR. HIGH GUARDS EMPHASIZE ORDER IN THE HALLS.

Junior High Student Council And Hall Guards

A feature of long standing in the Industrial Arts building is the hall guards, chosen from the top students both in grades and citizenship. These guards direct traffic through the halls between classes. In order to speed passing and avoid congestion, pupils are required to walk on the right side of the hall. The guards are stationed in the middle and no one is allowed to walk around them. Completing its second successful year, Junior High Student Council was led by officers Sue Habenicht, Nancy Underhill, Carolyn VanEpps, Tom Glueck, and Mike Miller. Mr. Kimble served as faculty adviser. One of the council's projects for the year was the dance held for junior high school with the clever theme of Satellite Swirl.

JUNIOR HIGH OFFICERS LISTEN ATTENTIVELY TO MR. KIMBLE'S INSTRUCTIONS AND EXPLANATIONS.

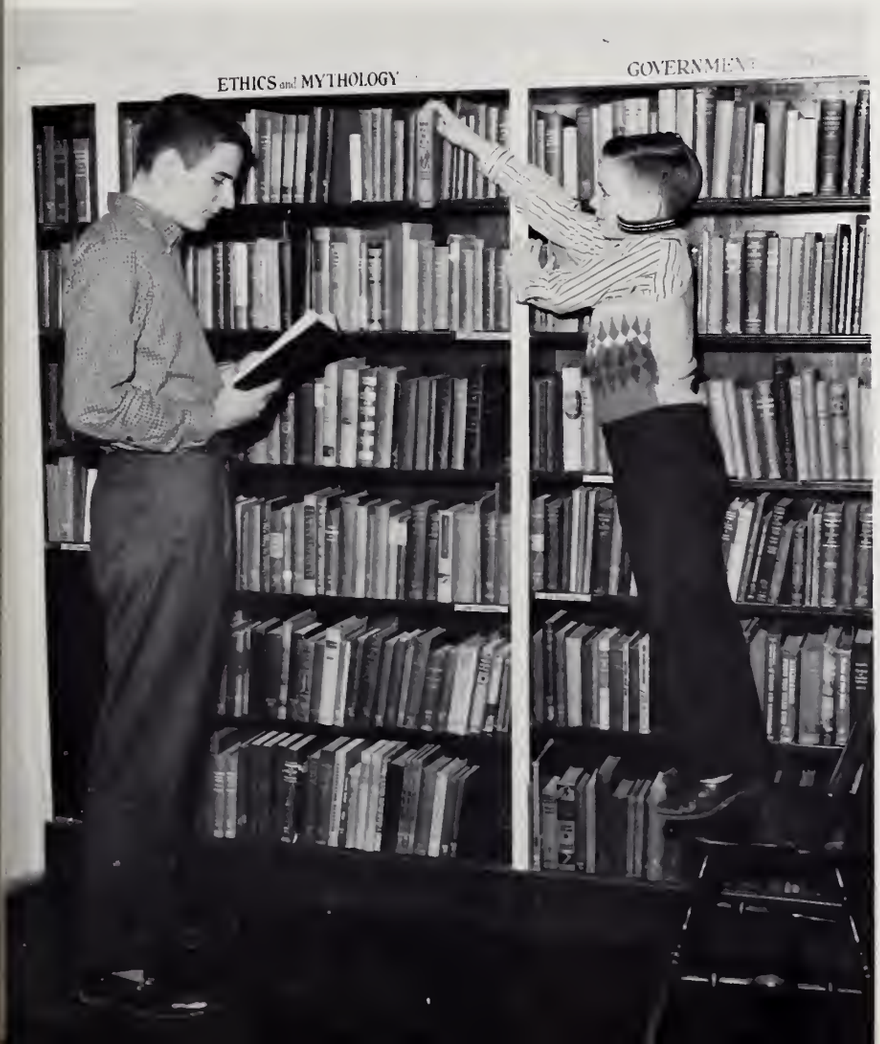
AN UPPER CLASSMAN HELPS A LOST SEVENTH GRADER ON THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL.

"MAYBE WHEN I AM A SENIOR I WILL BE THAT TALL!"



Seventh Graders Find Withrow Awe-Inspiring

The first day at Withrow presents a myriad of problems to a seventh grader. The maze of halls, rooms, and stairways will become familiar in time, but unless an effort is put forth, the student is apt to find himself bewildered by the unfamiliar faces of his classmates. This year for the second time languages were offered to the college preparatory classes. Perhaps the greatest transition the youngest class at Withrow has to make is learning to study properly. If the Industrial Arts Building is not confusing enough, the lunch period provides ample time for the seventh grader to become thoroughly awed at the Senior High Building. The long trek up three flights of stairs, and at passing time, gives the impression that the whole population of Cincinnati attends Withrow. It will be interesting to see the nonchalant attitude toward the size of their school when they are seniors.

MARIEMONT LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANERS

The proverbial satisfied customer becomes a reality at Mariemont Laundry and Dry Cleaners. Fast and efficient service is the policy upheld by the company and praised by customers.

3601 Wooster Pike
Mariemont, Ohio
BR 1-2006

Here's How It All Started . . .

Ninety years ago, in 1867 the Fred Pagels Stg. Co. entered the moving and storage business with the most modern equipment . . . horse drawn vans. It is a far cry from this early beginning to the new combination of ultra-modern trucks and air freight used today. Thanks to this company for the advertisement division page sponsorship.

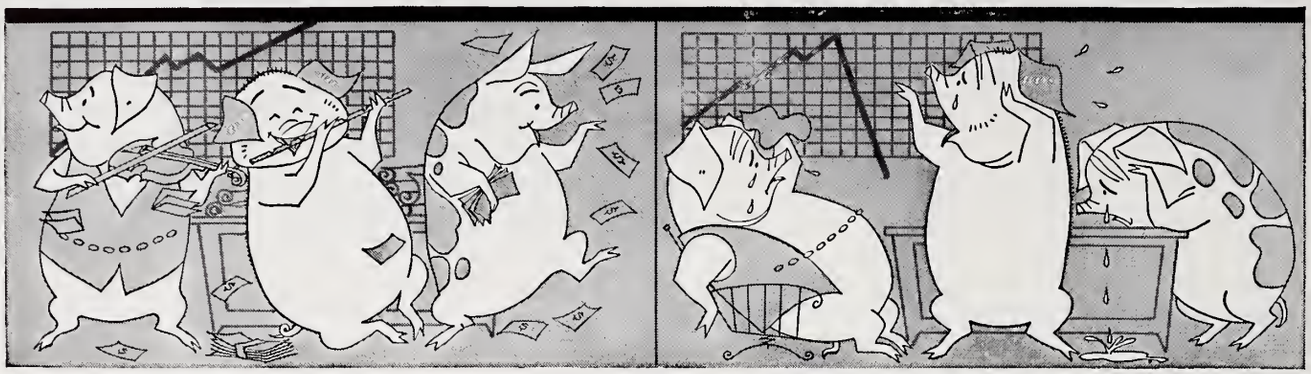
Speculation for our times

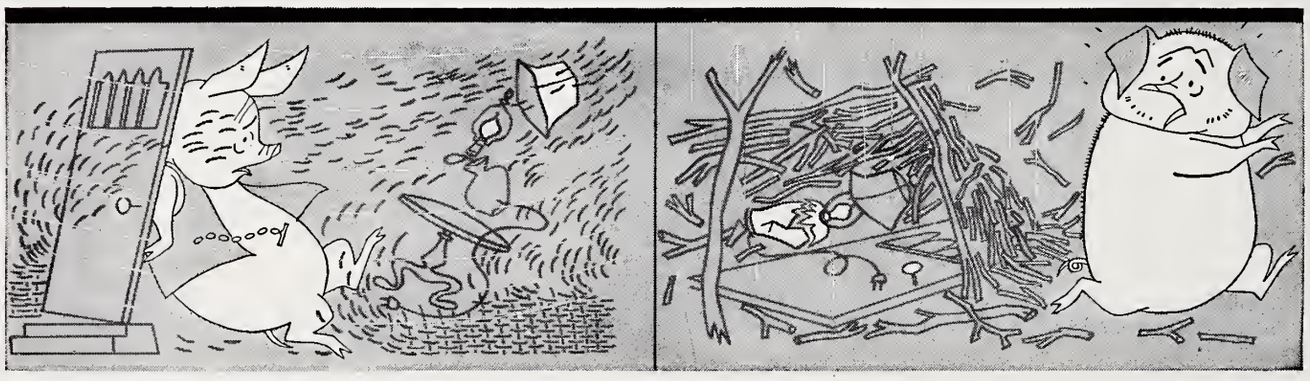
The day the trucks stopped running

(a slight twist on the tale of the three little pigs)



1. On the day the trucks stopped running a well known team of home builders were doing a land office business. As they say in business circles, they were getting "fat".

2. . . . But all of a sudden the whole picture changed. Their flow of supplies stopped abruptly. Their inventories evaporated. Their profit vanished. It was a desperate situation, calling for desperate measures.



3. . . . So they set about using the raw materials that were close at hand. For example, they tried building houses out of straw, but that proved impractical to say the least.

4. . . . Next they tried building them with sticks. But that was no good either. They just wouldn't seem to stand up.

5. . . . finally they tried building with stones. But there weren't enough of them to go around. So they worried and fretted and worried, for it now seemed certain that the "wolf was at their door".

6. . . . And, as it turned out—he was! And looking back on the whole affair they thought it strange indeed that so many troubles befell them on—the day trucks stopped running.
